

cynthia byrnes
contemporary art

Joe Gitterman
Artist Statement

Sails, knots, the movement of a dancer; these are the forms in motion that I attempt to replicate in my sculptures. With each series I examine the movements of a given form, such as the gesture of a dancer, or the billowing curve of a sail. I then take these moments and recreate them using a variety of materials. The result is an abstraction that hints at the possibility of movement.